A Technical Comparison Between the C.A.R and Professional Indemnity (P. I.) Insurance Coverage For Project Risk

May 23-24, 2024
9.00 a.m. - 5.00 p.m.

Level 2, Bangunan AICB,
Kuala Lumpur

OVERVIEW

Project risks and insurance aspects continue to be of interest to the insurance industry. There are many stakeholders involved in a project – Developer, Main Contractor, Consultant, Sub Contractors, Suppliers etc. Each party has a role to play to complete the project. Different policies are procured by the parties and they are often misunderstanding in terms of coverage and respective policy applications.

The two day course will focus on the differences between two main policies namely - the Contractors All Risks (CAR) policy and the Professional Indemnity(PI).

Application of a few key clauses and endorsements will also be explored during this inter-active knowledge sharing session. A site visit to a Consulting Engineers office is arranged to enable the participants to appreciate better the work undertaken by Design Consultants.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Executives and Managers from insurance/reinsurance companies and broking firms. Also suitable for Underwriters, Business Development and Marketing Executives from insurance/reinsurance companies; Loss Adjusters; Client and Account Executives and Managers of insurance/reinsurance broking firms; and Managers /Executives of insurance buyers and consumers.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the programme, participants should be able to:

- Identify the role and expectation of an Insurer coupled with better technical subject knowledge in relation to construction risks.
- Compare and contrast the coverage of the CAR and PI policies.
- Highlight the main policy condition and operative clause applicable to the CAR and PI policies.
- Appreciate the investigation aspects when dealing with a project incident or accident.
- Understand the steps involved in application of the appropriate policy using case studies that will enhance the learning process.

HRD Claim Application

Malaysian Insurance Institute (MII) courses have been granted the status of Approved Training Programme (ATP) under the Human Resources Development Act 1992. Based on Training Providers Circular No. 3/2021, PSMB has imposed a requirement that training providers need to register their training programme under the HRD Corp Claimable Course Scheme to offer training to the employers who are registered under the Human Resource Development Corporation (HRD Corp).

1. What is HRD Corp Claimable Courses?

HRD Corp Claimable Courses formerly known as SBL Khas is a scheme to assist registered employers, especially those with limited resources to train and upskill their employees in line with their operational and business requirements. Under this scheme, HRD Corp will pay the course fee (subjected to 4% service fee from 1st April 2021) directly to the training providers by deducting the amount from the employers' levy account. HRD Corp will also pay other claimable allowances to the employer.

2. How are Training Providers or Employers to submit for HRD Corp Claimable Courses?

Malaysian Insurance Institute (MII) will submit their Courses registration via the HRDC e-Tris system. Once course is approved as Claimable Course (previously known as SBL Khas course), the approved course will appear in the HRDC e-Tris system.

Employers will need to access the e-Tris system to select the course and submit to HRDC for grant approval. The total claimable amount is subject to the approval of each Employer individual grant application, Once HRDC approves Employer grant, the company must provide the approved grant code to Malaysian Insurance Institute (MII).

After the training is conducted, Employers are required to complete HRDC Attendance Reports eg. JD14 and submit necessary documents to ensure HRDC settlement of Malaysian Insurance Institute (MII) invoice.

Malaysian Insurance Institute (MII) will submit the invoice directly to HRDC with the approved grant code for each participant or Employer.
